

now no longer valid. On page 10 of LB 626 which was passed last year and vetoed by the Governor, this exact same language was in that bill and I submit that it is just as valid this year as it was last year. This is not an attempt by me or by anyone else to unduly delay the bill. I am resigned to the fact that we are going to have multibank holding companies, that the bill is going to pass. My purpose at this time is to make it as acceptable as possible. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The question is on the Lamb amendment to LB 58. Are you ready for the question? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no, 25 votes required to carry. The motion is the Lamb amendment. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 17 ayes, 26 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the Lamb amendment.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a request for a record vote from Senator Lamb. (Read record vote as found on page 355 of the Legislative Journal.) 17 ayes, 26 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. Are there further amendments to the bill?

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Are you ready for a vote on the advancement? The motion is to advance LB 58 as amended. Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Is this debate on the advancement?

PRESIDENT: Yes.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I would like to ask Senator Hoagland a question and then Senator DeCamp and I want to preface my remarks that I am not implying anything. My question is not argumentative, divisive, I am not accusing anyone. I just want to verify what several of you said. Senator Hoagland, you used the word that a compromise had been worked out on this bill. Am I correct in assuming that the compromise you were talking about deals only with LB 58 and you are not making reference to any other possible legislation introduced or proposed amendments to be introduced on other bills?

SENATOR HOAGLAND: As far as I am concerned, I was using the word in this sense, Senator Warner, that the language of LB 58
